Comprehensive

Last Action (May 22, 2026): Rule 3-9(a) / Re-referred to Assignments

Summary

The Illinois Data Privacy Protection Act establishes consumer rights, requires data processing considerations, creates the Data Privacy Protection Fund, and authorizes the Attorney General to enforce the Act.

Business Impact

If you process personal data of 100,000 consumers in Illinois, you must implement security measures and notify consumers of breaches or face civil penalties.

Key Provisions

- Establishes consumer rights to access, correct, and question profiling of personal data, and obtain a list of third parties to whom data has been disclosed.
- Requires businesses to implement security measures for data processing, considering the purposes and means of processing.
- Mandates annual registration for data brokers with the Attorney General.
- Imposes civil penalties for non-compliance.
- Limits the concurrent exercise of home rule powers.
- Excludes personal data processed solely for payment transactions from the 100,000 consumer threshold.
- Makes registration information accessible to the public via the Attorney General's website.
- Amends the Personal Information Protection Act and the State Finance Act.
