

H5178 • Massachusetts

Study Order

Introduced

Risk: Low

Study/Task Force

Last Action (Mar 05, 2026): Discharged to the committee on House Rules

Summary

This bill seeks to study various aspects of business operations in Massachusetts, including municipal and regional development, trade commissions, and artificial intelligence.

Business Impact

If you operate a small business in Massachusetts, you may need to prepare for potential regulations regarding AI by the time the study concludes.

Key Provisions

- Examine implications for limited liability companies in Massachusetts.
- Consider implications for small businesses in Massachusetts.
- Investigate municipal and regional development.
- Study trade commissions.
- Explore the role of artificial intelligence.

Industries Affected

Technology

Small Business

Government

Bill Sponsors

| Name | Party | Role |
|---|-------|---------|
| Committee on Economic Development and Emerging Technologies | | Sponsor |

Official Source

<https://malegislature.gov/Bills/194/H5178>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.