

A06656 • New York

Requires certain companies which utilize artificial intelligence to file responsible capability scaling policies with the chief information officer.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Effective: Jun 04, 2025 | Last Action (Jan 07, 2026): referred to consumer affairs and protection

Summary

This bill mandates companies using AI in New York to file responsible capability scaling policies with the chief information officer.

Business Impact

If you use AI in your business in New York, you must file a responsible capability scaling policy by the end of the year or face potential audits.

Key Provisions

- Entities using AI must develop a responsible capability scaling policy.
- Certification of compliance must be filed with the chief information officer.
- The chief information officer will create implementation rules.

Compliance Checklist

- Develop a responsible capability scaling policy for AI use. | Who: All entities using AI in New York. | Penalty: Potential audits by the attorney general.
- File an annual certification of compliance. | Who: All entities using AI in New York. | Penalty: Potential audits by the attorney general.

Industries Affected

Technology

Finance

Healthcare

General

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Jenifer Rajkumar	D	Sponsor

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/A6656>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.