

S09390 • New York

Provides that in any civil, criminal or family court proceeding, where evidence is offered and a party contends that such evidence has been fabricated by means of generative artificial intelligence, the court shall not, on that ground alone, conduct an inquiry into such alleged fabrication unless the party so contending makes a showing sufficient to support a reasonable inference that the evidence may not be authentic.

Unknown

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Mar 06, 2026): REFERRED TO JUDICIARY

Summary

This bill restricts court inquiries into evidence authenticity based on AI fabrication claims unless a reasonable inference of inauthenticity is demonstrated.

Business Impact

If you present evidence in court that may involve AI, you must be prepared to substantiate claims of authenticity or face potential legal challenges.

Key Provisions

- Courts cannot inquire into evidence authenticity based solely on AI fabrication claims.
- A party must provide sufficient evidence to support claims of evidence fabrication.
- The bill applies to civil, criminal, and family court proceedings.

Compliance Checklist

- Prepare to substantiate claims of evidence authenticity if alleging AI fabrication | Who: Legal practitioners and parties presenting evidence | Penalty: Potential legal challenges if claims are not substantiated

Industries Affected

Topics

AI in Insurance

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.