

HB2692 • Virginia

Custodial interrogations; false statements to a child prohibited, inauthentic replica documents.

Passed

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Apr 02, 2025): Acts of Assembly Chapter text (CHAP0669)

Summary

The bill prohibits law enforcement from making false statements or using inauthentic documents during child interrogations, impacting the admissibility of obtained statements.

Business Impact

If you employ law enforcement practices involving children in Virginia, you must ensure no false statements or inauthentic documents are used or face inadmissibility of statements.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits law enforcement from making false statements during child interrogations.
- Defines inauthentic replica documents and their implications.
- States that statements made by children are inadmissible if obtained through violations.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure no false statements are made during child interrogations. | Who: Law enforcement officers and agencies. | Penalty: Statements made by children will be inadmissible.
- Avoid using inauthentic replica documents in interrogations. | Who: Law enforcement officers and agencies. | Penalty: Statements made by children will be inadmissible.

Industries Affected

Legal Services

Law Enforcement

Topics

Comprehensive AI

AI in Law Enforcement

Official Source

<https://legiscan.com/VA/bill/HB2692/2025>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.