

HB3755 • Texas

Relating to biometric identifiers used in the performance of artificial intelligence.

Introduced

Risk: Low

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Mar 26, 2025): Referred to Delivery of Government Efficiency

Summary

Texas HB3755 addresses the regulation of biometric identifiers in AI systems. Detailed specifics will be available once the full bill text is released.

Business Impact

The bill does not specify actions or consequences for businesses.

Key Provisions

- Pending verification of specific provisions upon full text release

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure compliance with regulations on biometric data usage in AI | Who: Businesses using biometric identifiers in AI | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Data Privacy

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Biometric Technology

Topics

AI Privacy

Official Source

<https://legiscan.com/TX/bill/HB3755/2025>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.