

HB2268 • Virginia

Emerging Technologies, Cybersecurity, and Data Privacy, Division of; established.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Feb 04, 2025): Left in Appropriations

Summary

The bill establishes a Division of Emerging Technologies, Cybersecurity, and Data Privacy within the Department of Law to oversee related laws and report annually to JCOTS.

Business Impact

If you use AI or handle data in Virginia, you must comply with new regulations and report findings by November 1 each year or face enforcement actions.

Key Provisions

- Establishes a Division of Emerging Technologies, Cybersecurity, and Data Privacy within the Department of Law.
- Requires annual reporting to JCOTS on enforcement trends and compliance rates.
- Mandates collaboration with JCOTS for public hearings on the impact of emerging technologies.
- Calls for legislative recommendations to address gaps in existing laws.
- Focuses on oversight of AI, cybersecurity, and data privacy regulations.

Compliance Checklist

- Submit annual report on enforcement and compliance | Who: Division of Emerging Technologies, Cybersecurity, and Data Privacy | Penalty: Potential enforcement actions for non-compliance
- Participate in public hearings for community input | Who: JCOTS and the Division | Penalty: Potential gaps in compliance monitoring

Industries Affected

Cybersecurity

Technology

Data Privacy

Topics

Comprehensive AI

AI Privacy

Official Source

<https://legiscan.com/VA/bill/HB2268/2025>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.