

HB5899 • Michigan

State management: other; artificial intelligence pilot program; establish for state departments and agencies. Creates new act.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (May 19, 2026): Recommendation Concurred In

Summary

The bill proposes an AI pilot program for Michigan state departments, based on the official description, lacking full text confirmation.

Business Impact

If you operate a state department in Michigan, you must comply with the AI pilot program requirements by January 1, 2027, or face potential penalties.

Key Provisions

- Proposes an AI pilot program for state departments.
- Specific objectives and implementation details will be confirmed upon full text availability.

Compliance Checklist

- Submit application to participate in the AI pilot program | Who: State employees, agencies, or departments | Penalty: Withdrawal of participation approval
- Ensure human review of AI outputs | Who: Pilot participants | Penalty: Potential withdrawal of approval

Industries Affected

General

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Jaime Greene	R	Sponsor
Joseph Pavlov	R	Sponsor
Carrie Rheingans	D	Sponsor
Sharon MacDonell	D	Sponsor

Roll Call Votes

Date	Description	Yea	Nay	Result
2026-05-19	Reported With Recommendation For Referral To Commi	7	0	Passed

Official Source

<https://legislature.mi.gov/Bills/Bill?ObjectName=2026-HB-5899>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.