

S 10133 • New York

Prohibits the use of most artificial intelligence in classrooms prior to high school except for AI used for diagnostic purposes or explicit instruction interventions for students with disabilities.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Effective: Jul 01, 2026 | Last Action (Apr 30, 2026): REFERRED TO EDUCATION

Summary

This bill prohibits the use of most AI in classrooms prior to ninth grade, allowing exceptions for diagnostic purposes and interventions for students with disabilities.

Business Impact

If you operate educational institutions in New York, you must refrain from using AI in classrooms before high school by July 1, 2026, or face regulatory scrutiny.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits AI use in classrooms prior to ninth grade.
- Allows AI for diagnostic purposes and interventions for students with disabilities.

Compliance Checklist

- Cease use of AI in classrooms before high school | Who: Educational institutions in New York | Penalty: Regulatory scrutiny
- Implement AI for allowed purposes only | Who: Teachers and administrators | Penalty: Regulatory scrutiny

Industries Affected

Education

Topics

- AI Healthcare
- AI in Education

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Robert Jackson	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

- A09190 (NY)
- A 9190 (NY)

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/S10133>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.