

HR 1177 • North Carolina

Consumer Protection Artificial Intelligence Bill of Rights.

Unknown

Risk: Low

Comprehensive

Last Action (May 04, 2026): Passed 1st Reading

Summary

HR 1177 is titled the Consumer Protection Artificial Intelligence Bill of Rights in North Carolina. The bill's content and status beyond filing are not detailed.

Business Impact

The bill's impact on businesses using AI is unclear without the full text.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure transparency in AI decision-making | Who: Businesses using AI | Penalty: Potential fines for non-compliance
- Implement consumer rights protections | Who: Businesses utilizing AI | Penalty: Potential legal repercussions

Industries Affected

Technology

Consumer Protection

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Hawkins		Primary
Rubin		Primary
Lopez		Primary
Johnson		Cosponsor
Ager		Cosponsor

Belk		Cosponsor
G. Brown		Cosponsor
Cervania		Cosponsor
Clark		Cosponsor
Cohn		Cosponsor
Colvin		Cosponsor
Dahle		Cosponsor

Official Source

<https://openstates.org/nc/bills/2025/HR1177/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.