

A9190 • New York

Prohibits the use of most artificial intelligence in classrooms prior to high school

In Committee

Risk: Medium

Narrow/Targeted

Last Action (Jan 07, 2026): REFERRED TO EDUCATION

Summary

Prohibits most AI in classrooms before high school, except for diagnostic or instructional use for students with disabilities.

Business Impact

If you provide AI tools for education, ensure compliance with restrictions for pre-high school use.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits most AI use in classrooms prior to high school.
- Allows AI for diagnostic purposes for students with disabilities.
- Permits AI for explicit instruction interventions for students with disabilities.

Compliance Checklist

- Cease use of most AI technologies in classrooms prior to high school | Who: Educational institutions | Penalty: Potential penalties as determined by future regulations.

Industries Affected

Education

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Robert C. Carroll		Primary
Micah Lasher		Cosponsor
Judy Griffin		Cosponsor
William Colton		Cosponsor
Sarahana Shrestha		Cosponsor
Andrew Hevesi		Cosponsor
Tommy Schiavoni		Cosponsor
Jo Anne Simon		Cosponsor

Related Bills

- A09190 (NY)
- S10133 (NY)

Official Source

<https://legislation.nysenate.gov/api/3/bills/2025-2026/A9190?summary=&detail;=>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.