

Algorithm Accountability Act

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (Nov 18, 2025): Read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

Summary

The Algorithm Accountability Act proposes amending section 230 of the Communications Act of 1934, specifically targeting large social media platforms with over 10 million users.

Business Impact

If you operate a social media platform, you may face new liability limits under section 230 amendments.

Key Provisions

- Amends section 230 of the Communications Act of 1934 to limit liability protections, specifically affecting social media platforms with over 10 million users.
- Liability limitations apply when platforms fail to address algorithmic discrimination or harm.
- Exceptions exist for platforms demonstrating compliance with transparency and accountability standards.

Compliance Checklist

- Reassess content moderation practices and algorithms | Who: Social media platforms | Penalty: Civil liabilities for non-compliance
- Implement regular audits of algorithms | Who: Social media platforms | Penalty: Civil liabilities for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

Social Media

Topics

---

AI in Social Media & Online Platforms

AI Liability

Related Bills

---

- HB6266 (US)

Official Source

---

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/senate-bill/3193/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.