

HB5587 • Connecticut

An Act Prohibiting Health Insurers From Using Artificial Intelligence As The Primary Method To Deny Health Insurance Claims.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Jan 21, 2025): Referred to Joint Committee on Insurance and Real Estate

Summary

This bill prohibits health insurers in Connecticut from using artificial intelligence as the primary method to deny health insurance claims.

Business Impact

If you are a health insurer in Connecticut, you must ensure AI is not the primary method for denying claims or face potential regulatory consequences.

Key Provisions

- Prohibits health insurers from using AI as the primary method to deny claims.
- Requires human oversight in the claims denial process.
- Applies to all health insurers operating in Connecticut.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure AI is not the primary method for denying claims | Who: Health insurers operating in Connecticut | Penalty: Potential regulatory consequences

Industries Affected

Finance

Healthcare

Health Insurance

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Nick Menapace	D	Sponsor

Related Bills

- HB5590 \(CT\)

Official Source

https://www.cga.ct.gov/asp/cgabillstatus/cgabillstatus.asp?selBillType=Bill&bill;_num=HB05587&which;_year=2025

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.