

H7954 • Rhode Island

Regulates how certain large social media platforms utilize algorithms.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Mar 05, 2026): Committee recommended measure be held for further study

Summary

Bill H7954 seeks to regulate algorithm usage by large social media platforms in Rhode Island. Specific criteria, regulatory measures, enforcement mechanisms, and penalties will be provided once the full bill text is available.

Business Impact

If you operate a large social media platform, you must comply with new algorithm regulations once enacted.

Key Provisions

- Regulates algorithm usage by large social media platforms; specific criteria, regulatory measures, enforcement mechanisms, and penalties will be updated once the full bill text is available.

Compliance Checklist

- Disclose algorithmic processes and content moderation criteria | Who: Large social media platforms | Penalty: Potential fines for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Technology

Social Media

Topics

Official Source

---

<https://status.rilegislature.gov/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.