

HB2667 • Washington

Providing consumer protections for artificial intelligence systems.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Jan 26, 2026): First reading, referred to Technology, Economic Development, & Veterans.

Summary

HB 2667, introduced in Washington, aims to provide consumer protections for AI systems. Specific details will be provided once the bill text is available.

Business Impact

If you use AI for consumer services, you must ensure transparency and obtain clear consent by July 2024 or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- Specific consumer protection measures will be detailed once the bill text is available.

Industries Affected

Consumer Services

Artificial Intelligence

Technology

Consumer Protection

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Chapman		Primary
Maycumber		Cosponsor
Tharinger		Cosponsor
Hoff		Cosponsor
Vick		Cosponsor
Blake		Cosponsor

Dufault		Cosponsor
Van Werven		Cosponsor
Barkis		Cosponsor
Eslick		Cosponsor
Springer		Cosponsor
Kretz		Cosponsor

Related Bills

---

- SB6284 (WA)

Official Source

---

<https://app.leg.wa.gov/billsummary?BillNumber=2667&Year;=2025&Initiative;=false>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.