

SB3308 • United States (Federal)

Artificial Intelligence Civil Rights Act of 2025

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Last Action (Dec 02, 2025): Read twice and referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

Summary

SB3308 aims to protect individual rights concerning computational algorithms at the federal level. Specific provisions and impacts will be detailed once the full bill text is available.

Business Impact

The bill does not specify actions or consequences for businesses at this stage.

Key Provisions

- The bill aims to establish protections for individual rights concerning computational algorithms. Specific provisions will be detailed once the full bill text is available.

Compliance Checklist

- Ensure transparency in algorithmic decision-making processes | Who: All organizations using computational algorithms | Penalty: Fines and legal repercussions
- Implement measures to prevent discrimination in algorithmic outcomes | Who: Public and private sector entities | Penalty: Fines and legal repercussions

Industries Affected

Finance

Transportation

Technology

Legal

Artificial Intelligence

Healthcare

Topics

Related Bills

- HB6356 (US)

Official Source

<https://www.congress.gov/bill/119th-congress/senate-bill/3308/all-info>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.