

HB0606 • Utah

Surveillance and Investigatory Technology Amendments

Dead

Risk: Low

Amendment

Last Action (Mar 06, 2026): House/ filed in House file for bills not passed

Summary

HB0606, titled 'Surveillance and Investigatory Technology Amendments,' was introduced in Utah. Specific provisions and outcomes remain unverified without the bill text.

Business Impact

If you use surveillance tech, no immediate changes are required as the bill did not pass.

Key Provisions

- Changes to data collection practices
- Introduction of oversight mechanisms

Compliance Checklist

- Develop and implement policies for surveillance technology use | Who: Law enforcement agencies | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance not specified
- Ensure transparency in the use of investigatory technologies | Who: All entities utilizing such technologies | Penalty: Potential penalties for non-compliance not specified

Industries Affected

Law Enforcement

Security

Technology Providers

Government

Public Sector

Technology Services

Technology

Privacy Advocacy

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Wilcox, Ryan D.		Primary

Official Source

<https://le.utah.gov/~2026/bills/static/HB0606.html>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.