

SF4114 • Minnesota

Constitutional amendment proposal excluding artificial intelligence from the right to free speech

Introduced

Risk: High

Amendment

Last Action (Mar 04, 2026): Referred to Judiciary and Public Safety

Summary

This constitutional amendment proposal seeks to exclude artificial intelligence from the right to free speech in Minnesota.

Business Impact

If your organization uses AI in communications, you must prepare for potential changes in free speech implications by the time this amendment is enacted.

Key Provisions

- Excludes artificial intelligence from the right to free speech
- Proposes a constitutional amendment

Compliance Checklist

- Review AI communication practices | Who: All organizations using AI for content generation | Penalty: Legal challenges or restrictions on AI-generated content

Industries Affected

Media

General

Advertising

Technology

Bill Sponsors

| Name | Party | Role |
|------|-------|------|
|------|-------|------|

| | | |
|-----------------|---|---------|
| Erin Maye Quade | D | Sponsor |
| Eric Lucero | R | Sponsor |
| Bobby Champion | D | Sponsor |
| Warren Limmer | R | Sponsor |

Official Source

<https://www.revisor.mn.gov/bills/94/2026/0/SF/4114/>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.