

HB1167 • North Dakota

Artificial intelligence disclosure statements.

Passed Both Chambers

Risk: Medium

Comprehensive

Effective: Apr 11, 2024 | Last Action (Apr 14, 2025): Filed with Secretary Of State 04/11

Summary

The content of HB1167 regarding AI disclosure statements is currently unverifiable due to unreadable bill text.

Business Impact

If you use AI systems in North Dakota, you must provide disclosure statements about their use by the effective date or face penalties.

Key Provisions

- The content of HB1167 is currently unverifiable.
- Specific requirements and objectives are unclear.
- Await further clarification on AI disclosure mandates.

Compliance Checklist

- Create and provide disclosure statements for AI systems | Who: Businesses using AI systems | Penalty: Potential legal ramifications for non-compliance

Industries Affected

Business Services

Artificial Intelligence

Consumer Protection

Technology

Retail

Legal

AI Development

Finance

Healthcare

Manufacturing

Topics

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Rick C. Becker		Primary
D. Ruby		Primary
Anderson		Primary
O. Larsen		Primary
Kasper		Primary
Toman		Primary
Unruh		Primary
Magrum		Primary
Ertelt		Primary
Johnston		Primary
McWilliams		Primary
Satrom		Primary

Roll Call Votes

Date	Description	Yea	Nay	Result
2025-04-02	Motion for Final Passage on HB 1167	90	0	Passed
2025-03-18	Motion for Final Passage on HB 1167	46	0	Passed
2025-02-19	Motion for Final Passage on HB 1167	93	0	Passed

Official Source

<https://ndlegis.gov/assembly/69-2025/regular/bill-overview/bo1167.html>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.