

S10049 • New York

Updates the definition of cyberbullying in the dignity for all students act to include intentionally using artificial intelligence to mimic or alter a person's likeness or voice without their consent.

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Amendment

Last Action (May 07, 2026): ADVANCED TO THIRD READING

Summary

This bill updates the definition of cyberbullying to include using AI to mimic or alter a person's likeness or voice without consent.

Business Impact

If you use AI to create likenesses or voices in New York, you must obtain consent or face legal consequences.

Key Provisions

- Amends the definition of cyberbullying to include AI-related actions.
- Specifically addresses the unauthorized use of AI to alter likeness or voice.
- Aims to enhance protections for students against emerging technology misuse.

Compliance Checklist

- Update school policies to include AI-related cyberbullying definitions. | Who: School administrators and policy makers. | Penalty: Potential legal consequences for failing to comply.

Industries Affected

Education

Technology

Topics

Bill Sponsors

| Name | Party | Role |
|----------------|-------|---------|
| Robert Jackson | D | Sponsor |

Official Source

<https://www.nysenate.gov/legislation/bills/2025/S10049>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.