

H495 • Massachusetts

Reducing emissions from artificial intelligence

Introduced

Risk: Medium

Sector-Specific

Last Action (Mar 05, 2026): Accompanied a study order, see H5178

Summary

Bill H.495 is titled 'Relative to reducing emissions from artificial intelligence. Economic Development and Emerging Technologies.' Full text is not yet available.

Business Impact

If you operate in AI development, you must reduce emissions by 2025 or face penalties and restrictions on funding.

Industries Affected

Technology

General

Artificial Intelligence

Bill Sponsors

Name	Party	Role
Daniel Cahill		Primary
Daniel J. Hunt		Primary
Kevin G. Honan	Democratic	Primary
James K. Hawkins		Cosponsor
Carol A. Doherty		Cosponsor
Michael D. Brady		Cosponsor
Lindsay N. Sabadosa	Democratic	Cosponsor
Peter Capano		Cosponsor
Brian M. Ashe	Democratic	Cosponsor
Michael P. Kushmerek		Cosponsor
Frank A. Moran	Democratic	Cosponsor

Official Source

<https://malegislature.gov/Bills/194/H495>

Disclaimer: This document is generated by AI for informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice. Consult a qualified attorney for guidance specific to your situation. Information may not be fully up to date.